Kilyos beach : is a village located in the Sar?yer district of Istanbul, Turkey. It is also a well-known seaside resort on the Black Sea coast of the European side of Istanbul Province, famous with its beaches. There is a 14th century Genoese castle in the village, which was restored during the era of the Ottoman sultan Mahmud II, but it is not publicly accessible since it is located in the military zone. A historical cistern, eight cannons, and a 26 meter-high monumental plane tree are also spectacular within the castle area. After that we will visit belgrad forest and take a lunch inside the nature , and visiting the amirgane park . Belgrade forest : is a mixed deciduous forest lying 15 kilometers north-west of Istanbul, Turkey. Geographically, the forest is located at the easternmost point of the Thracian Peninsula. Forest terrain is divided between Sar?yer and Ey?p districts. Several historical reservoirs lie within the forest. With a region around 5,500 hectares of forest it houses many plant, bird and animal species. The most common tree in the forest is Sessile Oak. (Quercus petraea) Belgrad forest is under protection and is one of the most visited recreational areas of Istanbul. It's named after the captures of Siege of Belgrade who settled in an abandoned village in the forest. Amrigan Park : is a historical urban park located in Emirgan neighborhood at theBosphorus in Sar?yer district of Istanbul, Turkey. It is one of the largest public parks in Istanbul. In the Byzantine era, the entire area, where today the park stretches, was covered with cypress trees and known as "Kyparades" or "Cypress Forest". It became known as "Feridun Bey Park", when the uninhabited land was granted in the mid-16th century to Ni?anc? Feridun Bey, a Lord Chancellor in rank in the Ottoman Empire . ?n the last of the trip we will visit the biggest mall in turkey open it new in istinya .
